

Accomplishments of the Princeton Class of 1960 from 2010-15

1. Mini-reunions- We held three reunions. Havana, Cuba- the first Princeton Class ever to have a reunion there (2012- 30 people), Los Angeles (2013- 40 people), Philadelphia (2014-84 people).
2. Sachs Class of 1960 Scholarship- Raised over $200,000 for this scholarship which is considered a Class legacy. Scholarships now given to two people each year. (2012-13).
3. Tax Status- Filed the necessary papers for the Class to achieve tax exempt status in New York State in addition to New Jersey thereby avoiding any State taxes incurred at social events. (2012).
4. Awards- The Class established, and donated a trophy, for the Class of 1960 Quenby Williamson Reunion Award for best Reunion Costume (2011).
5. Social Events- a) Sponsored a cocktail party after the Harvard/Yale football game in each of the five years. b) Hosted the dinner/lunch with speakers, held with '61, in two years (2013, 2015).

6) Annual Giving- Set an all time record for the Class for Annual Giving contributions in a non major year (2013-14).

7) Finances- Increased the financial strength of the Class. Greatly increased the size of the Savings account specifically held for future Reunion needs. Established an income producing Vanguard Account (2012). Expenses greatly reduced with the elimination of mailing/PAW costs for Associates no longer interested in receiving Princeton correspondence. Annual Dues established for interested Associates for the first time.

8) Publications- a) Published a unique 55th Reunion memory book containing Princetonian newspapers from our undergraduate years, b) Issued a new official Class Directory as of April, 2015.

9) Memorabilia- Responded to the Princeton Memorabilia Committee's request for examples of '60's distinctive dress for their official archives (2011). (Beer jacket donated by Bob Murphy, '60 Reunion Jacket donated by Perry Hall's widow).

10) Class Dues- Dues paid by 54.7% of the Class, an all time high.(2013-14).

11) Annual Giving – 55th Reunion Year. Achieved a 71.1% participation percentage which is the best in the last five years and the fourth best for a major reunion of the Class. (2014-15)
