PSALM 23 (To be read in unison)

King James Version

The Lord is my shepherd;
I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures;
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul;
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil;
For thou art with me; Thy rod and thy staff, they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies;
Thou anointest my head with oil; My cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life,
And I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

SONG The Orange and the Black

Princeton Nassoons

THIRD READING

Lawrence Davis

Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted.
Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth.
Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled.
Blessed are the merciful, for they will receive mercy.
Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God.
Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called the children of God.

Matthew 5:1-9 (New Revised Standard Version)

REFLECTIONS

Rev. Ronald Fisher

SONG 1905 Reunion Song

Princeton Nassoons

Drawn by allegiance, the years cannot sever, Sons of fair Princeton return to their shrine.
Youth and old age in a common endeavor, proudly to serve her, to march in her line.
We turn once more to scenes we love, the walks, the ivied walls, the seniors singing on the steps, the elms, the cloistered halls. We call the roll, some men have gone, our hearts are touched with pain.
This makes us cherish all the more the friends who still remain.
But more than trees and songs and walls has Princeton for her men. She casts her spell upon our hearts and we are young again.

(arranged by Richard Scot Peterson '60)

*PRAYERS

Dr. Ronald Hillegass

Creator and Source of all life, We thank you that you have made each of us
In your own image, And given us gifts and talents
With which to serve our fellow humans.
We thank you for these our friends and classmates, The years we shared with them,
The good we saw in them, The love we received from them.
Now give us strength and courage, To leave them in your care,
And to go forward with gratitude and hope. Amen.

Merciful God, we remember before you today these our brothers, who stood by us and helped us, who cheered us by their sympathy and strengthened us by their example. We thank you for giving them to us as friends, to know and love as companions on our journeys. In your boundless compassion, console their families and all who mourn them, and help us to live that we may do honor to their memory and to your loving kindness. Amen.

PRAYER AND MEDITATION IN SILENCE

SONG Steps Song

Princeton Nassoons

Our lofty elms so gently break, the twilight crescent moon's soft light. Old Nassau's Tigers slow awake, the seniors hold the steps tonight. Our glowing pipes their incense sweet, in wreathing garlands bring. To vanish at the goddess' feet, To Alma Mater sing!

The bell clangs eight, our voices cease. And twilight charm gives way to night. The once thronged campus now in peace, lies dark and empty in our sight. But still content we tarry here. Again our voices ring, once more before our closing cheer, To Alma Mater sing!

Refrain: Integer vitae scelerisque purus non eget Mauris iaculis neq arcu, neque ne natis, gravida sagittis, Fusce, pharetra.

THE KADDISH

Frank Bocian, Armand Derfner

Yisgadal v 'yiskadash shmai raba.

Magnified and sanctified be His great name.

B 'olmo deev 'ro chir 'usai,

In this world which He has created in accordance with His will,

v 'yamlich malchusai, b 'chayechon u 'vyocmechon,

may He establish his kingdom during your lifetime,

u 'vchayai d 'chol bais Yisroel,

and during the life of all the House of Israel,

ba 'agolah u 'vizman koriv, v 'imru amen.

Speedily, and let us say, Amen.

Y'hai shmai rabah m 'varach, I 'olam u 'lalmey olmaya!

Let his Great name be blessed for ever and to all eternity!

Ylsborach v 'yishtabach v 'yispa-er v 'yisromam;

Blessed, praised, glorified, and exalted;

v 'yisnasai v 'yishadar v 'yisaleh v 'yis-halal,

extolled, honored, magnified, and laude

shemei d'Kudsha, b 'rich Hu.

be the name of the Holy one, blessed be He.

L 'aila win kol birchasa v 'shir as a, tushbechasa v 'nechamasa,

He is greater than all blessings, hymns, praises and consolations, da 'amiron b 'olmo; v 'imru amen.

Which can be uttered in this world; and let us say, Amen.

Y 'hai shlama raba min shamya,

May abundant peace from heaven descend upon us,

v 'chayim Val kol Yisroel; v "imru amen.

And may life be renewed for us and for all Israel; and let us say, Amen.

Oseh shalom bimeromav, Hu ya 'aseh shalom,

He who makes peace in the heavens, may He make peace,

alenu v 'al Kol yisroel; v 'imru amen.

For us and for all Israel; let us say, Amen.

*A PRAYER FOR PRINCETON

Dr. Rob Roy MacGregor

O eternal God, the creator and preserver of all things,
we beseech you to bestow upon this University your manifold gifts of grace:
Your truth to those who teach;
Your joy to those who learn;
Your wisdom to those who administer;
Your laws to those who hold its mission and its work in trust.
By these gracious influences of your Spirit,
bind all who bear the name of Princeton into the company of those who know your steadfast love. Amen

*OLD NASSAU

(Nassoon and Tigertone members of the Class of 1960 join the Nassoons on the Choir steps)

Tune every heart and every voice, Bid every care withdraw;
Let all with one accord rejoice, In praise of Old Nassau.
Let music rule the fleeting hour. Her mantle round us draw;
And thrill each heart with all her power, In praise of Old Nassau.
And when these walls in dust are laid, With reverence and awe
Another throng shall breathe our song, In praise of Old Nassau.
Till then with joy our songs we'll bring. And while a breath we draw,
We'll all unite to shout and sing: Long life to Old Nassau.

Refrain

In praise of Old Nassau, we sing, Hurrah! Hurrah! Hurrah!
Our hearts will give, while we shall live, Three cheers for Old Nassau.
(to end the final refrain) Long life to Old Nassau.

*BENEDICTION

Rev. Joseph Healey

God grant to the living, grace;
To the departed, rest;
To our friends and families, joy and love;
To all the world, peace and concord;
God's blessing and guidance be with us all, now and always.
Amen.
