

Dear Friends in the Class of 1987,

Congrats to Class of 1987 for winning The Class of 1960 Quenby Cullen Williamson S60 P89 P91 Reunion Award for the class wearing the most colorful and imaginative reunion costume.

Quenby designed the reunion jacket worn by the Class of 1960 (since 1990), and oversaw ordering and delivering all of their costumes until she passed away in 2007. The '60 jacket is a distinctive combination of orange, black and tigers and has set a high standard for reunion wear:

The Class having the most colorful and imaginative reunion attire, as determined by the Alumni Council Committee on Reunions and P-rade judges, will receive this award for carrying on this spirited tradition. Your creative tiger print is both classic and unique and your class looked fabulous marching in the P-rade.

This award will be officially presented to your class at the annual Alumni Council Luncheon, on the Friday of Reunions 2013 (May 31st). I hope Rich will be sure to wear his accompanying kilt with the jacket when accepting this award! You will receive an invitation in the spring to attend the luncheon. We hope you will publicize this great achievement to your classmates. At the luncheon, your Class will be handed over the '60 Award banner to proudly carry in the One and Only P-rade on June 1st.

Congratulations again on being the second class to win this award. Mike Cocco '73, Chair of the Committee on Reunions, and Kimberly joins me in sending a big locomotive cheer to all of you and the Great Class of 1987!

Cheers,

Mibs
