It is that time of the year again. Dues are now due for this fiscal year. This is a just a reminder, since you may have missed Phil Detjens' first letter, and todate I have not yet received your dues. If you have already sent them to me, I apologize as my letter may have passed yours in the mails.

As you may know, the annual dues do more than just support the Alumni Weekly. It also supports our Class events and pays for major projects such as the "Class of 1960 50th Reunion Yearbook," which I am sure you appreciated and enjoyed.

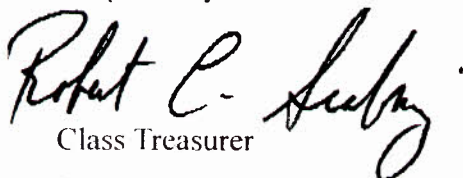

We also have a tradition that I hope you will embrace. Our class was awarded a Trophy by the University for having the highest percentage of dues paying classmates for any Class 26-50 years out. Let's keep the record intact.

Our dues also support the program and projects of the Alumni Council, which serves the entire alumni body. Some of the major activities funded by the dues that we pay to the Council include:

- 14 Standing committees with over 200 volunteers;
- The Old Guard Luncheon at Reunions;
- Annual Service of Remembrance at Alumni Day honoring Princetonians who died over the course of the year;
- The Award for Service to Princeton and its reception honoring the winners over Reunions weekend;
- A new Hoffman Scholars Program recognizing important research being conducted by Princeton's graduate alumni.

I hope you will continue your strong support by sending in your dues before year-end, which like gifts to the University are tax deductible.

Respectfully,

Class Treasurer
