Dear Classmates and Associates:

Here we are in the third year of COVID19 with all its variants. Hope you all are boosted and have taken the current flu shot. We are running a little late this year for the 2nd Dues letter. Halloween has already passed, as well as Thanksgiving. The mid-term elections are complete with the minimum of disruption. This time of the year also brings a reminder to send in your Class dues for this fiscal year 2022-23. It may be that you missed our Class President Bob Briggs' annual letter in October, which included a request for dues. Or maybe you sent them recently and our letters have crossed. In any event, I am looking forward to receiving your dues before the end of December.

It looks as though our 60th will have to wait until our 65th and I know the planning has already begun. Our football team suffered a tough loss to Penn and a chance to share the Ivy League title. Oh well, there is always next year. We are running behind this year in dues collections. I know a lot of that is probably the late start. In any event, put that dues check in the mail so we can have another strong showing this year. If you choose to use a credit card, you can do so easily by going to the class website www.Princeton1960.org and clicking on the PayPal button on the left column. This method is simple and secure.

As you know, annual dues provide an opportunity to contribute to the Daniel M. Sachs Class of 1960 Graduating Scholarship Fund, as well as the Class of 1960 Memorial Scholarship Fund for undergraduates. I am happy to report that to date this year, we have received $3,690 for the Memorial fund and $4,040 for the Dan Sachs fund, as well as $6,446 for the Class. Remember that your RMD (or any portion) from your IRA can be directed to either of our Funds or the Class and it will not be subject to taxation. The dues will also be used to pay for our upcoming 65th Reunion Remembrances Book.

For our Associates*, we continue with a fee of only $15, which in the past was just enough to cover a subscription to the PAW, with the assistance of the University. As in previous years, we request Associates to check the appropriate box on the enclosed dues card and to return it to indicate your wish to keep receiving the PAW.

I hope you will continue your strong support by sending in your dues before year-end which, like gifts to the University, are tax deductible.

Respectfully,

Robert C. Seabring '60
Class Treasurer
